Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read:-

P.W.Secretary's Note dated 26th March 1903, submitting for sanction, a statement of Reappropriations under Provincial Fund for the official year 1902-'03, resulting in a net resigna-tion of ₹94,000 on the total Budget grant of ₹ 31,50,000 and suggesting that this amount may be advantageously transferred to the Military Budget, to cover the excess outlay already incurred on the construction of the Imperial Service Transport Lines at Bangalore,

Camp No. 14-22/125-33 dated Camp Ootacamand 30th April 1903.

Order thereon:- The Government have been pleased to accord sanction to the Reappropriations proposed in the statement referred to above, under the circumstances represented, result-ing in a net resignation of ₹94,000 which has now been resumed, and alloted as an additional grant to the Military Budget for the purpose of covering the excess outlay already incurred on the construction of the "Imperial Service Transport Lines" at Bangalore in anticipation of the grant of additional funds for that work. The Military Assistant having already alloted from Military Budget a sum of ₹95,433 for expenditure on these Transport lines the total grant for that work for the current year will stand at ₹1,89,433 which should on no account be exceeded without the special sanction of Government.
